A 60 Minute Engagement that Will Last a Lifetime

Looking for a smart, engaging, dynamic speaker for your next conference, association meetup, or corporate retreat?

Anna is a sought after thought leader who has pioneered transformational business practices for over two decades.

Her Real-World Chops:

Anna has over 20 years of experience in organizational development, senior executive leadership, and as an entrepreneur. In those 20 years Anna has spearheaded conscious disruptions of organizational business norms to create dynamic business practices and sustainable infrastructure upgrades in technology, finance, eco-chemical, sports and hospitality industries.

Her Genius:

Anna works with systems from a holistic approach, understanding that for a business to thrive there are no simple 'quick fix' solutions. The ability to thrive is really about the interconnectedness of each and every decision that aligns with the purpose of the organization. Anna has become friendly with so-called 'failure,' thus she can gracefully leverage whatever is emerging, however functional or not, towards the evolution of the organization. Anna is driven by authenticity, appreciation, and taking 100% responsibility.
